Matthew E. Maggard

The law office of Hersch & Polk, P.A. is pleased to announce the hiring of its newest attorney, Matthew E. Maggard. A native of Dade City, Matt is the son of Dale and Ann Maggard, and the grandson of Sonny and Lorene Maggard, and Patricia and the late Tom Ed Oakley.

After graduating from Pasco High School, Matt obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Agricultural Economics from the University of Florida, where he graduated with honors.

Matt went on to pursue his dream of becoming a lawyer and was accepted into Florida Coastal School of Law. During his tenure, he was a Dean's Scholar in five separate semesters, earning a ranking in the top 10% of the School. Matt finished first in his class in Trusts & Estates, Florida Practice and Procedure and Administrative Law. He was also invited to and joined the International Legal Honors Society of Phi Delta Phi.

Matt is very excited to be back home and practicing law in the town where he grew up.

Matt graduated from Florida Coastal School of Law in December of 2012 and immediately sat for the first Bar exam in February of 2013, which he passed with high marks. In April of 2013, he was officially sworn in as a licensed attorney in the State of Florida.
